

MISSING

- Can you help?

Police are appealing for help from the public in tracing a man reported missing in Willaston.

David Hannam, 81, was reported missing by his family on the morning of Sunday 25 November. He was last seen by his family on Thursday 22 November.

This behaviour is out of character for David, who lives in Neston Road, and Police are becoming increasingly concerned for his safety.

David is described as 5' 10" tall, with thin balding grey hair, bushy grey eyebrows and of a stocky well built build. He wears spectacles is possibly wearing a blue cardigan with leather buttons. It is believed that David is on foot.

Inspector Richard Hill said "Extensive enquiries are currently being carried out to trace David. This behaviour is out of character and we are concerned for his welfare. We are appealing to anyone who may have seen David or someone matching his description to come forward.

"We are also appealing for David himself to make contact with us and let us know he is ok."
